Don Babcock moved to accept the treasurer's report, Chuck Strickler 2nd, Vote taken. Motion passed.

Correspondence:

- FWP letter about deer control in Helena.

Committee Reports:

- NA

Unfinished Business:

- Semper Fi Shoot for 2020 not to be pursued due to Rick Dais who has moved.
- Archery range status:
 - Targets have been found that come with a lifetime guarantee
 - They are UV resistant but will have to be taken off the field when cows are about. Group figured that was only a minor problem as they are in the pasture only about 2 months of the year.
 - Considering a 100 yard range with different shooting points.
 - To be discussed during the March 17th meeting.

New Business:

- Paid lease fee of $600
- Attendance contest ended at the end of the year with Tim Allen winning the RCBS reloading kit and Dillon Lester winning the Stage Line Pizza Prize.
- Rodney Browning was contacted by the Meagher County Chronicle (on Facebook) about doing an article about the gun club. They are looking for current and historical information. Any member with information should either send an email to MCSA@meaghercosportsmen.com or contact Rodney.
- Proposal to install and realign AR500 gong steel targets on the Meagher County Sportsmen's Shooting Range was reviewed again. Costs are reasonable and the go ahead was given to proceed.
- Mike Greener presented that the dues for both the Montana Shooting Sports Association (MSSA) and the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) are due. Dan Rader moved that we pay the dues. Dill Cummins 2nd. Vote was taken. Motion passed.
- Joanne Cummins and Dan Rader finished the audit on the club's 2018 books and received a folder for the 2019 year. No discrepancies found..
- Discussed the calendar for 2020 and got updates on start times for all events.
- Not enough people wanted to participate in an Offhand Clinic for 2020. So no clinic will be on the calendar.
- Current holders of the open officer positions are Rodney Browning (Presideent), Mike Greener (Secretary/Treasure), and Jess Secrest (Board Member). No other nominations were received. All stated they would stay in their posinions for another 2 years. Dan Rader moved that a vote be taken to continue with the same people in those positions. Gary Smith 2nd. Voted taken. Motion passed.
- Move to Adjourn by Bill Cummins 2ND by: Don Babcock Meeting Adjourned at 20:00 hours.
